

Make Money Your Own Way

Are your children looking for a way to make money? Speak with them about the variety of different ways they can earn extra cash to save for a future goal.

Babysitting

Is babysitting right for you? Ask yourself these questions:

- Do you like little kids?
- How did it work out when you took care of younger siblings?
- How do your parents feel about you babysitting?

Not sure where to start?

Visit redcross.org to see if a babysitter training course is available in your area.

Sell, Sell, Sell!

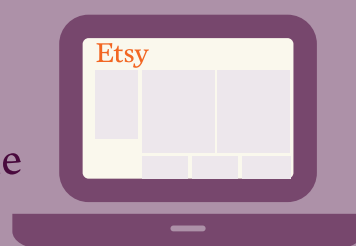

Host a garage sale

- Put up signs around your neighborhood to advertise.
- Ask your parents to post about the garage sale on social media.

Start your own business

- You could sell photos, paintings, handmade jewelry, and much more!
- Ask your parents to help you get your business online at etsy.com.

Tutoring

Decide which subject you are best at. It could be:

- Math
- Science
- English
- A foreign language
- History
- Art

Find students to tutor:

Post flyers in your school district. Make sure to list topics that you are an expert in.

Ask your parents if they know anybody with a kid who needs help in a subject.

And Much More...

- Start a pet-sitting service.
- Ask your neighbors if they need someone to rake or mow their lawn.
- Get a group of friends together to have a car wash.

Set your children up for future financial success by helping them open a savings account at your local credit union. Encourage them to never spend all of what they've earned in one place and practice saving for things they will want in the future.
